BUY FLOUR NOW.

An Organization West to Raise the Price
of Wheat.

[Special Dispatch to the Transcript.]

DULUTH, Minn., Oct. 14.—It is reported throughout the northwest that wheat growers have formed an organization for the purpose of advancing the price of wheat to a figure where it will pay them to take grain to market. Farmers intend hoarding their wheat as the capitalists of the country are manipulating the price in order to make fortunes for themselves. It is claimed the price to farmers will advance 25 to 50 per cent. inside of two months.

ALBANY THROAT CUTTING.

The Awful Deed of a Husband and Father.

[Special Dispatch to the Transcript.]

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 14.—Henry Malloy cut the throats of his wife and his four-year-old son yesterday after a night of dissipation. Both will die. At the time of their marriage Mrs. Malloy was only twelve years old and her husband but fifteen. The latter is under arrest.

DUEL TO THE DEATH.

[Special Dispatch to the Transcript.]

GLOSTER, O., Oct. 14.—In a duel last night in the street ex-Marshall Elmer Donnelly was instantly killed by Marshal
David C. Cooke, and the latter was mortally wounded. An old quarrel existed between the men and when they met last night both drew revolvers and fired with the above result.

CLEVELAND'S YACHT SIGHTED.

[Special dispatch to the Transcript.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—The steam yacht supposed to be the Oneida with President Cleveland aboard passed out at Sandy Hook at 5.30 this morning.

[Special Dispatch to the Transcript.]

LEWIS, Del., Oct. 14.—The new battle ship Indiana passed out by the capes at 8 o'clock this morning enroute to the New England coast, where she will have her official trial trip.

HOW TO BECOME A RUNNER.

One of the Most Healthful Exercises For a Boy.

Running is one of the best of exercises for the whole body. It rounds out a hollow chest, drives the oxygen into the farthest air cells of the lungs, wonderfully increases the capacity and develops the leg, thigh, stomach and waist muscles. But it must be learned just as skating, swimming and bicycling have to be learned, and there are two things that must be kept in mind by the learner.
The first is—whether in sprinting distance or cross country running—to run entirely on the ball of the foot, or,
as they say on the track, "Get up on your toes!" By striking on the ball of the foot, which is a sort of natural springboard, the runner takes a longer stride, and the spring that he gets enables him to lift his foot more rapidly and repeat the stride more quickly than the runner who goes flat footed. As length and rapidity of stride are what give speed in running it follows that a flat footed runner can never be a fast
one.

The second point for a runner to observe is his method of breathing. Breathe through both the nose and mouth. Nearly every boy, when he first begins to run,
has the insane idea that all the breathing must be done through the nose. There was never a greater mistake. Breathe through the nose as much as possible, but when you are running or exercising violently open the mouth and take in air
in deep, rapid breaths, not gulping it in through the mouth alone, but letting the mouth and nose have each their share.

Take as long a stride as possible, but without overbalancing the body. Bend the body slightly from the hips, for if it be held too erect the stride will be shortened. Let the bent arms swing easily and naturally a little above the level of the hips, swinging out and back with every stride. This keeps the muscles loose, prevents them from becoming tired so easily as they would if held rigid and balances the body better. Take special pains to keep the body from being stiff. Let it swing as easily and lively as possible. In sprinting the stride is shorter and more rapid than in long distance running, and a sprinter usually runs with body thrown further back, in quite different form from the long, easy loping of the distance runner.

How to Quench Thirst Without Water.

In cases of illness, where water is for-bidden and thirst is very great, an almost immediate relief is to be found in a teaspoonful of glycerin.

How to Keep Jellies From Molding.

After the jelly is cold pour melted paraffin over the surface. It is easily removed in a cake when necessary and is a sure preventive.

TRAMP PROBLEM.

Discussed by Rev. A. B. Church
From the Pulpit Sunday Evening.

A VERY IMPORTANT QUESTION.

Tramping Has Become a Profession. Some Worthy Poor in the Ranks. Various Causes that Lead to Tramp-
ing. The Movement Here.

"Vagabondism and Its Treatment" was the subject of Rev. A. B. Church's sermon at the Universalist church Sunday evening. The text was Proverbs 10:4:
"He becometh poor that dealeth with a slack hand: but the hand of the diligent maketh rich."
The statement, said Mr. Church, that all men are created equal mentally, morally and physically, is not true and never has been. It is very evident that as long as the human race has existed
there have been affluence and abject poverty among men. The text takes account of these and attributes them to the same conditions that are their principal cause today. Tramping in his "Vanity Fair" presents a picture of society that is much truer than the statement that all men are created equal.
That we are all born with certain inalienable rights there can be no question.
The right to life and an opportunity of gaining a livelihood are among these, but in the opportunity for gaining a livelihood there is great inequality and this is something that demanded looking after.

We have a great amount of pauperism and vagabondage in this country.
We consider pauperism unavoidable, but it is a question whether it is or not. Including in the pauper list the idiots, tramps, inebriates, insane, etc., we have in this country 85,000 in institutions and 250,000 who receive what is called "outdoor" help, that is, they are only in part supported by the public. In the United States the annual cost for out-door support is ten million dollars, and for this, combined with the cost of supporting those institutions, the amount is from twenty-five to forty millions, or fifty cents for every inhabitant. In this state last year 29,000 persons received out-door
relief 12,000 were maintained in institutions. Some think pauperism is increasing, but statistics show that in the free states there were as many paupers in proportion to the population fifty years ago
as there are today.

The tax payers take good care of those in institutions, but it is evident that society does not know how to treat certain classes of mendicants. Our hands are open to the worthy poor, and properly
so, but thinking and indiscriminate charity fosters what is known as the tramp class. There are some worthy men whom circumstances have reduced to tramping, but how to discriminate between these and the unworthy ones is the question. In many of the large cities this work is well done by the associated charities, to which all applicants for help are sent and by which they are dealt with according to their deserts. These associated charities head off the impostors and there ought to be such an organization in this town. But even this does not cover the tramp question entirely, and that is one that needs attention.

Tramping has become a profession with many, as was learned by Mr. Sanborn, a gentleman connected with Massachusetts charities, who disguised himself and entered the ranks of tramps in order to get a correct inside view of their manner of living. He found that they take different characters, such as the religious tramp,
the unfortunate business man, the man who is trying to get home to his sick wife in Europe, etc. There is something about tramp life that is enticing. It satisfies the love of ease and the desire for adventure.
There are various causes which help to swell the ranks of the great army of tramps. Among these are prodigality in flush times, which leaves a man with no means when the pinch comes; another is foolish and indiscriminate charity, and still another is the inefficiency of courts and officials who too often allow men with money to escape the penalty of crime.
Strong drink is, of course, one of the leading causes.

There are several schemes for meeting
this tramp evil, but none of a national character. In some states they have their gangs, in some places the tramps are compelled to break stone and in Maine if they do they are arrested and prosecuted. In some places they have mission homes, but Mr. Sanborn says these are not up to the regular tramp lodging house. He says that in these places a tramp by getting "gloriously saved" every night can hold a bid indefinitely, and that in all his experience among them he found the religious bum by all odds the most unworthy and despicable.

North Adams is not on so much of a thoroughfare for tramps as many other places, yet we have a large number here.
In 1892 there were 800 lodged at the police station, 1200 in 1893, 1000 in 1894, and 800 this year since the first of March. How to take care of these fellows is an important question, but I think we are getting on the right track. Mr. Allen and his wife are coming here and there is to be opened a lodging house and a wood yard. Mr. Allen wants the community to do nothing for the tramps but to send them there, where they will be able to pay their way by work, and will be made to do so. If people have any old clothes or shoes to spare they should be sent there and they will be sold to the tramps for labor. The worthy tramp is not afraid of work, and those who will not work can walk on to the next town. With such an institution in running order people need not feel that they are uncharitable when they refuse direct aid to tramps, no matter how pitiful the story that may be told. In this way only those deserving of aid will be helped and a great gain will be made. The wood saved by the tramp will be sold, but it is not expected business enough will be done to interfere with the regular dealers. Chief Fuller believes the plan is practical and I believe it is both Christian and practical.

Several of the best players on the Williams football team are laid up with severe injuries, and the outlook for the game at Harvard Wednesday is not bright.
But the team promises well to beat both Amherst and Dartmouth in the championship series.

TABLE OF AGGREGATES

Figures of the Assessed Value
of the Town of North Adams.

AN OPPORTUNITY FOR COMPARISON.

They Show the Increase (or Last Year in the Taxable Property, the Tax Rate
and Other Points of Much Interest.

The following table of aggregates from
the assessors' books is of much interest.
It shows the increase in valuation, increase in taxation and increase of taxable property, real estate and personal. The aggregates of last year are given so comparisons can be made.

Number of residents assessed on property, individuals 1,750, all others 205.
Number of non-residents assessed on property, individuals 102, all others 9.
Number of persons assessed 2,056, poll tax
only 3,528. Number of male polls assessed 4,768. Value of assessed personal estate, including resident bank stock, $1,279,790;
resident bank stock, $197,886. Value of assessed real estate, $3,890,000. Land excluding buildings $1,961,100. Total valuation of assessed real estate $7,324,751.
The tax for state county and town is on personal estate $20,893.16, on real estate $108,490.10, on polls $9,536. Rate $15.20.
Number of horses assessed, 1,048.
Number of cows assessed 550, number of sheep assessed 31. Number of neat cattle other than cows 78. Number of swine assessed 48. Number of dwelling houses assessed 2,467. Number of acres of land assessed 9,440. Amount of money voted by the town $177,782. Anticipated receipts $36,000. Amount raised by taxation $142,- 919.28. Overlays $137.26.

For the purpose of comparison the aggregates follow: Number of residents assessed on property, individuals 1676
all others 155. Number of non-residents assessed on property, individuals 75, all others 3. Number of persons assessed on property, 1908, on poll tax only 3,598. Number of male polls assessed, 5,- 062. Value of assessed personal estate including resident bank stock, $1,281,411.
Resident bank stock $212,390. Total $1,- 493,810. Value of assessed real estate, buildings excluding land, $3,788,576. Land excluding buildings, $1,922,520. Total $5,- 711,095. Total valuation of assessed real estate, $7,294,906. Tax for state, county and town on personal estate $20,394.77,
on real estate, $97,088.02, on polls $10,124, total $127,607.30. Tax rate $17. Number of horses assessed, 933. Number of cows assessed, 568. Number of sheep assessed, 77.
Number of neat cattle other than cows,
65. Number of swine assessed, 50. Number of dwelling houses assessed 2,417. Number of acres of land assessed, 9,696. Amount voted by the town, $164,980.57. Anticipated receipts, $34,000. Amount raised by taxation $130,980.57. Overlays, $1,638.82.

REPRESENTATIVE CHOICE.

Republicans Nominate Kearn and Richmond Saturday.

Republicans of the first Berkshire district held their representative convention in the district court room Saturday afternoon at 4.30 o'clock. F. B. Moore of Williamstown called the meeting to order and read the call. C. T. Phelps was chosen chairman and W. H. Pritchard secretary.
A. M. Tinker, Col. Frank S. Richardson,
Fred F. Dowlin, George P. Carpenter of Williamstown and E. W. Gleason of Clarksburg were appointed committee on credentials. The committee collected the credentials and reported sixty-seven delegates present with credentials, fifty-two from North Adams, ten from Williamstown, three from Clarksburg and two from Florida. New Ashford was not represented. Three of the Williams town delegates and one of the North Adams men were without credentials, but the convention was satisfied that they were duly elected and they were admitted, making a total of seventy-one out of a possible eighty-two.

Nominations were then called for and
N. B. Flood presented the name of George H. Kearn, John E. Magenis presented the name of C. Q. Richmond, A. J. Withers-ell's name was proposed by J. M. Canedy and G. L. Jewett's by Col. F. S. Richardson. The merits of the candidates were ably set forth in each case.

An informal ballot was then taken for one candidate, resulting as follows: George H. Kearn, forty-eight; C. Q. Richmond, seventeen; Col. A. Potter, three; blank,
one. Mr. Kearn was then nominated by acclamation.

Another informal ballot was taken with this result: C. Q. Richmond, fifty; G. L.
Jewett, seven; A. J. Withersell, four; Co-
A. Potter, four. Mr. Richmond's nomination was made by acclamation, the vote, as in Mr. Kearn's case, being unanimous.

Edward M. Meekins of this town, W.
B. Clark of Williamstown and E. W.
Gleason of Clarksburg were made district committee and the convention adjoined.

A Lecturer's Sudden Death.

Announcement was made in Saturday's TRANSCRIPT that Rev. Mr. Tebbetts had engaged H. E. Ragan, the celebrated lecturer, to deliver a course of lectures in the Wilson opera house during December and January. To his great astonishment
Mr. Tebbetts has since received letters from Mr. Ragan's agent announcing his sudden death in Atlanta, Ga. This will be sad intelligence to a great many towns and cities for which he was booked this winter, as well as to his many friends and admirers.

Protests Against the Information.

North Adams, Oct. 14, 1895.

EDITOR TRANSCRIPT:—Will you please
state in your paper the following facts:
That Mr. G. H. Spaulding has not mysteriously disappeared as it was intimated in your paper Saturday. The man who was so kind as to give you the information was mistaken in what he said. Mr. Spaulding is not financially embarrassed as he is not the owner of the business. He has also seen and spoken to the men, besides the foreman. He is away at present to try to settle matters with the creditors. Any one wanting his address may have the same by calling on Mrs. G. H. Spaulding, Hall street. She would be glad to give it to anyone.

Yours respectfully,
Mrs. G. H. SPAULDING.

DANGER IN THE NOTCH

Prof. Sedgwick Holds the Same
Opinion The Investigators Advanced.

FARMS ARE SOURCES OF IMPURITY.

Eddy Farm is Dangerous, the Wilbur Farm is Because of Boarders. Buildings Should be Removed and Woods Grown.

It will be remembered that a report of a committee that investigated sanitary conditions in the Notch appeared in this paper some time ago after the committee had reported to a committee of the board of trade that was appointed to consider the condition of the town's water supply.
It will also be remembered that the report
was subjected to a good deal of criticism,
mostly irrelevant and some ridiculous.
Besides this there is a good number of respected citizens who placed little dependence in the finding of the Notch investigators and think their opinions in the matter are ultra scientific whims offered with not too much knowledge of the subject on which the opinion was advanced.
In justice to the investigators and for public information it can be said that Prof. Sedgwick, the biologist of the state board of health who made recent investigations, is of the opinion the committee advanced. The professor says the Eddy farm is particularly dangerous to the purity of the Notch water supply. Its barnyard and appurtenances should be cleaned up and the buildings removed.
He was less acquainted with the Wilbur farm but would say it was dangerous because boarders are taken by Mr. Wilbur.
The schoolhouse might be a source of danger, but of its condition he knew little.
He believes the whole water shed should be cleared of buildings and allowed to grow up to brush and trees so that the water supply would be increased as well as made pure.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT.

John B. Holman Receives a Heavy Fine
for Disturbing the Peace.

In the district court John B. Holman, accused of disturbing the peace, was fined $50.

Napoleon Buchard, Thomas Burke and Joseph Mulholland were each fined $2.00
for drunkenness and placed on probation
for six months.

Daniel Lynch and Peter McManus were each fined $3 for disturbing the peace.

Charles M. Rogers was accused of drunkenness and his case was continued
a week.

Samuel Williams, drunk, defaulted.
Nelson Young was charged with selling a horse that was mortgaged and his case
was continued a week.

John Bradley, disturbing the peace, was put on probation.

The case of Kate Dillon, accused of assault on Mary Watson, was continued until Saturday.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

Happenings of Interest in Our Neighbor Towns.

ADAMS.

Miss Hattie E. Masecraft.
Miss Hattie E. Masecraft died at her home at Renfrew at 9.30 o'clock Sunday night of typhoid fever followed by hemorrhages. She was taken with the epidemic a week ago last Wednesday and has suffered since that day. Saturday her recovery was hopeful but Sunday she was taken by the hemorrhages and medical assistance was of no avail. Miss Masecraft was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Masecraft and was born in North Adams on May 3, 1887. Her parents moved to Adams when she was six months old and she lived here ever since. Miss Masecraft was a woman of exemplary character, possessing a personality peculiar to herself, by which she won the admiration and respect of everybody she met. Always happy and smiling she seemed to impart to others that good nature which all admired. She was a prominent member of the Congregational church and taught a class in the Sabbath school. She was also a member of the Kings Daughters. The funeral will be held at Miss Masecraft's late home at Renfrew Tuesday afternoon and Rev. A. B. Penniman will officiate. Interment will be at North Adams.

The Fair Continued.
The extremely bad condition of the weather caused the attendance at St. Charles fair to be very small. The contestants for the prize were not all there and on the whole it was thought advisable to wait until Tuesday evening, when it was hoped the weather would be favorable. This tomorrow evening will in all probability see the end of the fair.

The World Against Her.
Tickets have sold well for Agnes Wallace Villa's "The World Against Her," and a large crowd will probably greet that clever actress tonight. It is several years since she was here but during all the time which has gone by, her successful play has been presented season after season until its name is well known in all theatre going communities. The company is very strong.

A Live Wire Fell.
Considerable excitement was caused on Park street Saturday afternoon by the falling of a live wire, just in front of W. B. Green's block. Nobody was near when it struck the ground and it flashed and sizzled like a regular bonfire. It was repaired in short order.

The bans of marriage were published for the first time at St. Charles church Sunday of Miss Mary Welch and John Ford, both of Renfrew.

Rev. Fr. Coyne was in Lee Sunday and Rev. Fr. Murray was in town substituted for him at St. Charles church.

Charles E. Legate is to open his new store in the armory building on Park street a week from Thursday evening. He will sell no goods on that evening but simply have the store open for inspection. An orchestra will be engaged and every visitor will be given a souvenir.

Rev. O. I. Darling's morning sermon at St. Paul's church was "The Need for Universalism." In the evening he spoke on "The Army of the Perplexed."

C. T. Plunkett and family sailed for home Saturday.

Noe, the three-months-old son of Noe and Emma Brooks, died at his home on Commercial street Saturday and will be buried at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

ADAMS TOWN TALK.

The great Seymour medical examinations free of charge at Greylock hotel, Adams, Mass., this week. He is assisted by the eminent specialist, surgeon, G. Stanley, M. D., physician from the fact that his treatment through Seymour, the diagnostician, proves without an equal. Blood, kidney, liver, diseases of men and women, lingering chronic, the examination is free and made by Mr. Seymour. The man who gives sittings regarding lost or stolen property, sickness, disease, love, marriage, divorce, pensions, etc., and fresh in the minds of our people is the finding of Mr. Charles K. Gould's stolen goods in North Adams. Mr. Seymour will be located at Greylock hotel, Adams, Mass. Office hours of Messrs. Seymour and Stanley from 9 a.m. to 11 p.m., daily. 20221

CHESHIRE.

According to the village service water the past season, the town had better not give up any brooks to supply any other town, especially where the water can be used to our own advantage. We need more water.
Mrs. Betsey Viner, wife of Truman Viner, died Saturday and was buried today at 2 p.m., from her late residence on Church street. She was sixty-two years old and leaves one son and two daughters to mourn her. Adelbert, her son, lives here. Mrs. Harlan Prince of Springfield and Mrs. S. B. Ingalls of this place are her daughters.

The widow of the late Orrin Martin is very feeble and is not expected to live. She has been troubled for some time with a brain trouble.

Scott Jenks has bought a sawmill at Cumington where wooden ware is made and he has moved there with his son, although his goods are not moved. He is reported to have paid $3,000 for the mill and privilege.

The Reading club will meet Friday evening with Miss Tillie Reynolds.

The Hook school house was broken into last week and robbed of a clock and other things.

WILLIAMSTOWN.

A European Trip.

Rev. Fr. M. A. O'Sullivan, who has just returned after a three month's stay in Europe, gave his congregation a very interesting discourse Sunday morning on the principal cities visited and the wonderful and magnificent buildings which help to beautify them. He had the great honor and pleasure of celebrating the holy sacrifice of the Mass in St. Peter's cathedral in Rome which is the largest building ever erected in the world for religious purposes. In closing he said that although his trip had been a very pleasant and advantageous one, nevertheless he was glad to be home once more and to take up the work amongst them which he had put aside for a short time.

Welch-Mooney.

The bans of marriage between Miss Rosanna Mooney and Thomas Welch, both of Williamstown, were published for the first time Sunday morning in St. Patrick's church.

Head Master James C. MacKenzie of Lawrenceville academy, Lawrenceville, N. J., was the guest of President Carter over Sunday and preached in the chapel Sunday morning. This is one of the first schools in the United States and sends quite a number of men to Williams.

A party was given Saturday night by Mrs. William Howard Doughty. A large number were present and it was one of the social events of the season.

The funeral of Arthur Bland was held Sunday afternoon from the home of his sister, Mrs. Lyman Porter, on Water street.

Miss Evaline Bloome and Miss Julliard of Lenox are visiting at the home of George E. Dodge on South street.

Ewart Edwards who has been visiting with friends in Manchester, N. H., for the past three months, has returned home.

Mrs. John Burke of Troy is the guest of friends in town.

Abraham and Irving Garfield, Williams, '93, are in town for a few days. Irving Garfield was captain of the Williams eleven in '93, and his aid now is of no small value.

Williams' Y. P. S. O. E. society was addressed Sunday evening by A. C. Barrell, '97. The society has a large membership and is in a flourishing condition.

BLACKINTON.

Archie McMillan of Schaghticoke, N. Y., spent Sunday in town.

Mrs. William Jones of Maynard, Mass., is visiting the family of John W. Jones for a few days.

George W. Ashton of this place is teaching night school at the Beaver, North Adams.

Thomas Johnson, whose funeral took place Saturday at North Adams, was for many years a respected resident of this village. At the time of his death his home was at Attleboro, Mass.

Rev. Father O'Sullivan has resumed his duties as pastor of St. Patrick's church, after a very extensive European trip. He celebrated mass in this village yesterday and treated his congregation to a very interesting account of his travels. He visited Germany, France, Belgium, Italy, England and Ireland.

The Blackinton foot ball team defeated the Y. M. C. A. team of Bennington Saturday by a score of 8 to 0. The Blackintons were strengthened by Warren, DeWolfe and Coughlin of North Adams, who played a very good game. Especial mention should be made of the plays of Warren and Schouler. This is the first game played this season. The manager of the Manchester, Vt., team saw the game and challenged the Blackintons to play at Manchester Thanksgiving.

GREYLOCK.

John Sreenan of Fitchburg visited his sister, Mrs. James O'Brien, Saturday.

Frank Robare came home from Fitchburg Saturday and will move his family to that city today.

Nearly all the machinery for the mill has arrived and is being set up by mechanics from England. It is expected some of the looms will be running this week.

Albert Bressette has secured a position as loom fixer with the Johnson Manufacturing company.

How to Try on shoes.

There are special times and seasons for the trying on of new shoes. A larger pair of shoes is needed in summer than in winter. It is always best to try them on in the latter part of the day. The feet are then at the maximum size. Activity naturally enlarges them or makes them swell. Much standing tends also to enlarge the feet. New shoes should also be tried on over moderately thick stockings. Then you can put on a thinner pair to ease your feet if the shoes seem to be tight. It is remarkable what a difference the stockings make. If they are too large or too small, they will be nearly as uncomfortable as a pair of shoes that are too tight. New shoes can be worn with as much ease as old ones if they are stuffed to the shape of the foot with cloth or paper and patiently sponged with hot water. Or if they pinch in some particular spot a cloth wet with hot water and laid across the place will cause immediate and lasting relief. Milk applied once a week with a soft cloth freshens and preserves boots and shoes.

How to Cook Lamb Cutlets.

The most delicious lamb cutlets come from the leg, cutting three slices an inch thick. Mix well in a cup 2 teaspoonfuls of lemon juice, half a teaspoonful of onion juice, half a teaspoonful of salt, one-eighth of a teaspoonful of pepper and 3 tablespoonfuls of salad oil and rub the mixture over the slices of lamb. Cover the dish in which the meat lies and put it away for an hour or more. When ready to cook the cutlets, spread them lightly with melted butter and dip them in fine bread crumbs. Cook in a double broiler over a moderate fire for eight minutes. Serve hot with green peas and parsley.

'TIS CITY HALL NOW.

A Large Representative Meeting Votes to Buy the Remodelled Building.

NO VOTE BY BALLOT ASKED.

Carlton T. Phelps Chosen Moderator by Ballot. The Meeting Two-Thirds in Favor of Purchase. Road Commissioners Get Another Thousand Dollars.

(From Saturday's Transcript.)

The special town meeting to decide as to the purchasing of the property of A. C. Houghton at the corner of Morris and Summer streets for the purposes of a city hall met at Odd Fellows' hall Saturday afternoon.

The hall was filled with voters evidently looking for a diversion of opinion. But there was but one opinion in as representative a town meeting as was ever held in North Adams. Not even a vote by ballot was asked for. It was a clear case of common sense with common sense people. The fitness of the building and the financial advantages made the vote a foregone conclusion, and the recommendation of the finance committee was adopted by a voice vote that could be easily calculated at two to one. There was practically no opposition.

Those opposed to the purchase were noisier in voting than those for it, and an estimate made by a conservative man said that there was not one in five in the hall that did not favor the purchase.

The meeting was opened by the reading of the warrant, after which M. E. Couch moved that the moderator be chosen by ballot the check list to be used which was carried. A motion that the box be turned was voted down loudly and balloting proceeded. A few seconds later the box was turned and it was found there were 10 ballots cast for Carlton T. Phelps.

Mr. Phelps then read the second article of the warrant pertaining to the purchase of the building and explained this was the first business for the evening. The first thing was to hear from the finance committee and E. S. Wilkinson rose to report.

T. J. Crowley rose to a point of order against this and was himself ruled out of order. Mr. Wilkinson proceeded and read the report that has been printed in all the papers, giving the committee's opinion on the advisability of purchasing the property and recommending the purchase.

M. E. Couch moved the acceptance and adoption of the report of the finance committee. The motion being put the chair was in doubt and another vote gave it to the "yeas."

Then article three came before the meeting. It provided for allowing $1,000 for the repair of roads from the special appropriation for winter roads. It was then discovered that the adoption of the report carried that and Mr. Couch withdrew his motion for the allowing of the money.

E. S. Wilkinson then moved for the purchase of the building as stated in the warrant. A. J. Witherell asked for information on the matter of gold being given in payment, saying gold often is worth a great premium.

Mr. Wilkinson explained the payment was to be made in gold or its equivalent and then the motion on the question of purchase was put. The result was a loud chorus of "ayes" and very few "no's." The moderator declared the vote to be a two-thirds one for the purchase.

The meeting was then dissolved and the larger part of it seemed very content.

Treasurer Arrested.

DORCHESTER, Oct. 14.—The complications in which the affairs of the Globe Investment company, this city, are involved, were intensified Saturday night by the arrest of its treasurer, J. L. Moore, charged with the embezzlement of $3000, preferred by Judge E. H. Bennett. The affairs of the investment company have been brought into prominence in the courts here recently through the application of several banks in London and Manchester, Eng., and others, for an injunction preventing the company from doing further business until its affairs are settled. The application was granted, and H. A. Wyman was appointed receiver by the court. It is claimed that the receiver found the affairs of the company in a badly tangled condition.

Famous Electrician Killed.

GREAT BARRINGTON, Mass., Oct. 14.—Franklin L. Pope, an electrician, whose skill has made him prominent throughout the electrical world, lost his life last evening by means of the same mysterious fluid that has made him famous. The accident happened in Mr. Pope's residence when it came time to turn on the electricity to light the house. For some reason the lights did not work to the satisfaction of Mr. Pope, and he went down cellar, where the transformer is located, to see if he could remedy the trouble. Soon after he descended the stairs Mr. Pope was found lying beside the transformer, lifeless. Physicians were summoned, but all to no purpose. Three thousand volts had passed through his body.

Bolles' Property Attached.

NEWTON, N. H., Oct. 14.—Another phase of the famous bogus bond case, and one which caused considerable excitement here, developed yesterday when it became known that Deputy Sheriff Collins of Kingston had attached the residence of ex-Secretary Bolles of this town in a suit brought by the Squamscott National bank of Exeter to recover the face of a $300 note given by Bolles in 1883, on which, the bank declares, Bolles gave as security for a $300 bond of the town of Newton, which has been declared a forgery. Mr. Bolles was a selectman in 1873, during which year the alleged bogus bonds were issued.

McGuire and Russell Matched.

LAWRENCE, Mass., Oct. 14.—Articles of agreement were signed here last night for a contest with French folks, for a silver cup and the championship of the world, between the present champion, J. A. McGuire of New York, and William H. Russell of this city. The time and place of the contest have not been agreed upon.

Captured in Boston.

BOSTON, Oct. 14.—Crescencio Mirola, 25 years old, was arrested yesterday for the murder of Emanuel Livo in Lackawanna Township, Pa., in June, 1894. Mirola was locked up to await requisition papers from Pennsylvania.

It Rained.

WORCESTER, Mass., Oct. 14.—Rain interfered most seriously with the New England championship games here. The only record broken was in the 100 yards, which Frank H. Bigelow of the Worcester Athletic club did in 10.1-5s.

Fell Seventy-Five Feet.

WESTERVILLE, R. I., Oct. 14.—G. B. Matheson, one of the crew of the schooner Hannah Blackman, was scraping the topmast, when the chain-broke, letting him fall 75 feet. He was instantly killed.

SACKVILLE WAS RIGHT

Concerning the Story That He Was "Looked After" by Sherman.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—On Saturday J. B. Davis, who was for a time assistant secretary of state under Secretary Frothingham, received the following letter from Brigadier General Tibbalt (retired) of the United States army, detailing circumstances concerning the Sackville pamphlet heretofore not made public: 132 MONTAGUE STREET, BROOKLYN.
DEAR SIR—I have not seen Lord Sackville's pamphlet and do not know in what connection he brings forward the circumstances referred to in the article on the Chesapeake, but do know as a matter of fact that it did occur. It was in the first part of May, 1883. General Sherman took Lord Sackville West and family on a navy vessel (the Tuscarora, perhaps) down the Chesapeake on an ostensible junketing trip. They were gone a week or 10 days. Meanwhile, I, as aide-de-camp to General Sherman, took care of the British legation at Washington.
So far as I know, no one knew the reasons this action except President Arthur, Secretary of War Lincoln, General Sherman and myself. But I presume there were those in the state department who were aware of it. Of course the British minister was in the secret, but I do not think it was known to his secretary at the time. General Ayres, commanding the troops at Washington barracks, and the chief of police, Colonel Dyre, were to a degree aware of what was going on. The secret was so well kept that it never got into the papers, but as Lord Sackville has now divulged it, I have no hesitation in mentioning what I know about it.
Very truly yours,
JOHN C. TIBBALT,
Brigadier General, U. S. A.

KING A PRISONER.

Affairs at Korea's Capital Are in a Decidedly Mixed State.

SHANGHAI, Oct. 14.—A Seoul dispatch reports that the Japanese troops were at the gates of the palace during the butchery incident upon the uprising of the anti-foreigners headed by Tai-Run-Kin, father of the King of Korea. There was nothing to show that the Japanese minister was aware of the plot.
The king is now a prisoner, and his father has been proclaimed dictator.
A new cabinet has been constituted of Japanese elements.
The queen's officials have fled.
The Japanese soshi has been arrested for the murder of the queen.
The British cruiser Edgar H. has been suddenly ordered to Chemulpo, where will land a force of marines.

Three Killed.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 14.—Three persons were killed outright and nine others injured by a runaway trolley car on the West End electric line jumping the track and going over an embankment last night. The car wrecked was on the Carnegie branch of the West End electric line. Just before the city limit is reached there is a sharp curve and hill along the track for about a quarter of a mile. When the car reached this point the brake rod broke and the motorman lost control. The car dashed down the hill until it reached McCartney street, where there is a sharp curve. Here it jumped the track and turned completely over, landing in a ravine alongside of the road. The car was broken into splinters and the three persons killed were horribly mangled.

With Due Honors.

ROME, Oct. 14.—The remains of William Wetmore Story, the sculptor, arrived here from Florence yesterday, and were buried in the Protestant cemetery, after solemn obsequies at St. Paul's Episcopal church, in the presence of his family, of the English, American and Russian legation charges, and of many representatives of Italian, American and English society. He was buried next to the urn containing Shelley's heart. Numerous splendid wreaths were placed upon the coffin.

Not Betrothed to Montenegro Princess.

ROME, Oct. 14.—Sig. Lombardi, director royal of the royal establishment, denies the report that the Italian prince is betrothed to a princess of Montenegro. He admitted that the negotiations opened in 1894 for the marriage of the prince to a daughter of the Prince of W were suspended by mutual agreement, but he stated that those negotiations have now been resumed, and it is probable that the marriage will take place in the spring.

To Utilize Rapids.

LEWISTON, Me., Oct. 14.—A party of Lewiston capitalists have purchased the power at Crooked Rips, six miles above this city, and will improve it. There is a fall of 20 feet in a mile. It is probable that a pulp mill will be built there.

Stakeout for Indiana.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Oct. 14.—The U. S. S. Fern has been ordered to take position as stakeout for the trial of the U. S. S. Indiana, which occurs off this coast this week.

Old People.

Old people who require medicine to regulate their bowels and kidneys will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters. This medicine does not stimulate and contains no whiskey nor other intoxicant, but acts as a tonic and alterative. It acts mildly on the stomach and bowels, adding strength and giving tone to the organs, thereby aiding nature in the performance of the functions. Electric Bitters is an excellent appetizer and aids digestion. Old people find it just exactly what they need. Price fifty cents and $1.00 per bottle at Burlington & Darby's Drug store.

Engagement Rings.

L. M. Barnes, the Wilson House Jeweler.

NOTICE TO VOTERS.

Notice is hereby given that the lists of qualified voters of the men and women of the town of North Adams have been printed and are now posted at the office of the registrar of voters. The board of registrars of voters will be in session for the purpose of receiving applications for the registration of persons claiming the right to vote at the N. W. elections and for the correction of the voting lists, at the Town Clerk's office, on Friday, October 19th, from 2 to 5 and 7 to 9 p.m.

Friday, October 19th, from 2 to 5 and 7 to 9 p.m.

Tuesday, October 22nd, from 7 to 9 p.m.

Friday, October 25th, from 2 to 5 and 7 to 9 p.m.

At which time real estate taxes by law, after which no name can be placed on the register.

The Board will also be in session on Tuesday, October 22nd, from 10 to 3 p.m., at office of Geo. L. C. Manufacturing Co.

All male persons desirous to register must appear in person on one of the above dates and give their right to vote by presenting a tax bill of 1894 or a certificate from the board of assessors. By the provisions of chapter 436 of the acts of 1893 women may be registered at any of the above sessions to vote upon the following question: "Is it expedient that municipal suffrage be granted to women?"

STORM-SWEPT COAST.

Heavy Rain and High Wind From Cape Cod to Portland.

Was Particularly Severe In Boston and Vicinity.

Vessels Had a Hard Time but No Serious
Casualties Are Reported.

BOSTON, Oct. 14.—The storm which struck Boston shortly after 1 o'clock Saturday, developing unexpected severity, seems to have been confined almost entirely to the New England coast north of Cape Cod. Boston, however, received the worst drenching, although it rained heavily all along the coast between this city and Portland.

When the storm began there were no indications that it would be anything more than an ordinary rainfall, but by midnight the wind, which had been blowing with increasing force from the south-east, backed to the northwest, and at 7 o'clock yesterday morning had reached a maximum velocity of 40 miles an hour, and was stationary south of Long Island.

Up to 8 o'clock last night 3.23 inches of rain had fallen since Saturday noon in this city, which is more than the total rainfall since July 1.

In 12 hours, from 8 o'clock yesterday morning till 8 o'clock last night, 3.23 inches fell, which is very near the record. The rainfall at Block Island and Nantucket, where it is usually twice as heavy as at any other point, has been very light, neither has it rained very much along the Maine coast, although there has been a heavy northeast gale along shore for the past 24 hours.

In Boston Bay.

The storm struck the harbor and lower bay, with the wind blowing hard from the southeast, Saturday night. It backed into the northeast at about 9 o'clock yesterday morning, and gradually increased to a violent gale, kicking up a tremendous sea outside. No very serious casualties, however, have been reported.

The upper harbor is filled with shipping, and most of the vessels have out two anchors. Some of them have dragged during the day, and in one or two cases the assistance of a tug was necessary to bring them to a place of safety. Among these was the Bristol (flag) barkentine Florence B. Hedges, from Algon bay, Cape of Good Hope, with a cargo of wool, which Captain Jones of the tug Katie Jones found anchored in a dangerous position near Toddy rocks, off Hull, where she was endeavoring to ride out the storm with 60 fathoms of cable strung out.

Schooner Sabine of Boston drifted across the harbor and was forced against the bulkhead of the New York and New England railroad dock, and sustained considerable damage.

Steamer City of Mazon, hence for Savannah, left for berth yesterday, but did not venture beyond quarantine, where she anchored, waiting for the storm to abate.

The steamers Essex, Captain Bond, from Baltimore, and the H. F. Dimock, Captain Coleman, from New York, which were due to arrive yesterday forenoon, are hours behind. It is thought they are anchored under Cape Cod, waiting for the storm to subside.

A fleet of about a dozen fishermen arrived yesterday. Their skippers report the weather very severe outside.

Cars Stopped Running.

The storm in Lynn was very severe, flooding many basements. In the business portion of the city, while a number of trees were blown down. Travel on three of the electric car lines was abandoned at 5 o'clock last night. The surf on the beach has been very high.

Tracks Washed Out.

The rainfall during the storm which struck Amesbury has been almost unprecedented, and the tracks of the Merrimack and Amesbury street railway were washed out in a number of places. The damage is also heavy along the entire length of the road.

At the Northern End.

At times yesterday the wind blew 25 miles an hour at Portland, Me., and the rain fell in torrents. The harbor is filled with coasting vessels, and a very heavy sea is running outside. Late last night a large three-masted schooner broke away from her moorings and went floating about the harbor. Crash after crash marked her movements among the vessels lying at anchor. The New York and Portland boat Cottage City is long overdue.

Welcomed at Harbor.

A Bangor (Me.) dispatch says that the heavy rain of the past 24 hours has been gratefully hailed in that city as a welcome relief from the protracted drought.

AN APPEAL TO WOMEN

Who Believe That the Right of Suffrage Belongs to Men Alone.

BOSTON, Oct. 14.—The Massachusetts association opposed to the extension of suffrage to women has been formed by women who believe that a more systematic resistance should be made to the appeals and claims of woman suffragists, and at a meeting held in Boston in May a standing committee of 100 chose an executive committee for active work in that line. An appeal to the women of Massachusetts says:

"The association urges upon all women interested in the status of their sex the clear and imperative duty of helping to form a sound public opinion on this important question. We do not believe, however, that it is necessary for women to vote merely to show that they do not desire to vote, and we accordingly advise women to abstain from voting on the question of municipal suffrage for women at the coming election, but to urge their fathers, husbands and brothers to vote 'No' at that time."

"Women of 21 years of age and over who desire to join the association are requested to send their names and addresses to the secretary, or to any of the undersigned members of the standing committee: Mrs. C. E. Guild, Brookline, secretary; Mrs. J. M. Colman, Brookline; Miss S. H. Crook, 210 Commonwealth avenue, Boston; Mrs. J. C. Fish, 32 Quincy street, Cambridge; Miss E. H. Houghton, 1000 Massachusetts avenue, Cambridge; Miss Elise Johnson, Weymouth; Mrs. F. C. Lovell, 130 Beacon street, Boston; Mrs. O. W. Peabody, 35 Commonwealth avenue, Boston; Mrs. P. H. Sears, 85 Mt. Vernon street, Boston; Mrs. W. T. Solgwick, 83 Chestnut street, Boston; Mrs. G. H. Shaw, 23 Commonwealth avenue, Boston; Miss E. P. Schier, 79 Beacon street, Boston; Mrs. H. M. Schuyler, 1000 Commonwealth avenue, Boston; Mrs. C. T. Leonard, Springfield; Miss A. L. Davies, Pittsfield; Mrs. Nathaniel Palmer, 73 Elm street, Worcester; Mrs. C. T. Hubbard, Main street, Concord; Miss Julia Delano, 40 Hawthorne street, New Bedford; Mrs. F. E. Pearson, 7 Pond street, Newburyport."

For Honest Money.

BOSTON, Oct. 14.—Secretary of the Treasury Carlisle addressed the Massachusetts Reform club Saturday night on the currency question. He declared that he found a menace in the old United States and treasury notes, and their enforced redemption and reissue were strongly condemned.

CORRECTED BY OLNEY.

Spanish Prime Minister Misinter-
preted Our Treaty Rights.

Question of Consul General's Diplomatic Power

Led to Emphatic Correspondence Being Transmitted to Spain.

New York, Oct. 14.—A special Washington dispatch to The World reveals the true inwardness of the state department's correspondence with the Spanish government, which so stirred up diplomatic circles in Madrid last week.

What this government has done has been to formally notify the Spanish government that action recently taken by it in Havana is in violation of the treaty rights of this country, and that for any danger to American citizens and American dignity arising therefrom Spain will be held responsible. The circumstances are as follows: Since Consul General Williams compelled Captain General Calleja, while governor general of Cuba, to recognize the treaty of 1871 in the case of Julio Sanguily, and by so doing prevented the trial of the latter by a military court in Havana last February, the Spanish government has been restive over the question of Mr. Williams' diplomatic authority.

Senor Canovas, the Spanish prime minister, after the subject was fully considered at a meeting of the Spanish ministry, at which he presided in person, decided to deprive Mr. Williams of all diplomatic authority and confine him strictly to the purely commercial or consular privileges of his office. It is known that General Canovas sent for Mr. Williams recently and communicated to him that Instruction From Spain.

Secretary Olney straightway prepared a state paper in which he disagreed with the conclusion of the Spanish minister. As the treaty with the United States grants the American consuls all the rights and privileges of consuls of "the most favored nation," Secretary Olney informed Senor Canovas that the United States demands that his government concede the same privileges and functions to the United States consul general at Havana that are given to other consul generals in Cuba.

The language of Secretary Olney's dispatch is said to be peremptory. Should any American be arrested at Havana and subjected to court-martial, or should any case arise that calls for prompt action by the consul general, the refusal of the local government to recognize him might lead to disastrous results.

Hunt Is Not.

LITTLE ROCK, Oct. 14.—Sheriff Hought of Hot Springs was here last night and held a long interview with Governor Clark. Said he: "I intended to use my authority on the day of the fight, and I would have succeeded. That crowd would have dumped $500,000 in Hot Springs, and the law would not have been violated. I have made arrangements for 500 men had the number been necessary to uphold the law." He said that Judge Duffie's action in writing to Governor Clark for assistance was unwarranted.

Pleasure Seekers Drowned.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 14.—Four men were drowned yesterday by the capsizing of a pleasure boat in the middle branch of the Patuxent river. They were Harry Stiner, Fred Valkman, W. A. Reynolds and James Huston. The men attempted to cross the river from Ferry bar to Motor's pavilion. When about half way across, the boat began to fill, the men became frightened and in a moment the frail craft went over, leaving the pleasure seekers struggling in the water.

Deserves Censure.

MONTREAL, Oct. 14.—Premier Taitton of Quebec, at a bye-election meeting, was dilating on the evils of the Mercier regime when someone exclaimed: "Mercier's life is dead!" Taitton immediately rejoined: "I hope that he has not left a blot to bring forth another such brood." Joseph Mercier, the dead premier's brother, states that the first time he meets Premier Taitton he will spit in the latter's face.

Disease-Stricken Schooner.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—Norwegian bark Figaro, from Batavia and Padang, reports that on Oct. 11, 35 miles northeast of Cape Henry, she spoke the schooner Laura L. Sprague of Rockland, Me., from Brunswick, Ga., for Boston, with a cargo of lumber. The Sprague's chief mate reported that Captain Wagon had died of supposed malaria, and that four members of the crew were suffering from the disease.

McKee Wants to Fight.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 14.—Charles McKee, having declared that he would challenge the winner of the fight between Gifford and Lavigne, has, in consequence of the contest having been a draw, issued a challenge to fight either of them for the lightweight championship of the world, for a stake or a purse, at his limit.

Decker Decamped.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 14.—Frank M. Decker, a convict, sentenced to Sing Sing prison Aug. 18, 1893, for four years and three months for grand larceny in New York city, escaped Saturday night. Decker, as an exemplary prisoner, was stationed in the warden's private apartments as a servant.

Many Hold Worthless Notes.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Oct. 14.—The government's refusal to accept the notes of the Union and Commercial banks is exciting indignation among the people of the outlying ports. Many persons here hold large quantities of the notes and are now unable to dispose of them.

Coming to Terms.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 14.—The porte has appointed a commission to inquire into the recent Armenian arrests, and has promised the powers to deal severely with anyone who is found to have tortured the Armenians in prison.

Poetess Alexander Dead.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—Mrs. J. Alexander, the poetess, wife of the Rev. William Alexander, is dead. She was the author of "Moral Songs," "Hymns for Children" and "Poems on Old Testament Subjects."

Poor China!

PERKIN, Oct. 14.—Some of the Mohammedan rebels in the province of Kan-Su have captured the city of Lan-Chu, the capital of the province.

Evidence of Suicide.

BOSTON, Oct. 14.—Charles H. Blaney, a crayon artist, is supposed to have committed suicide by drowning in the Charles river. His clothes were found at the river end of Berkeley street, and from letters found in the pockets it is supposed that he had been drinking heavily.

"THE SUNDAY SALOON"

Should Be Permitted to Exist Under Certain Restrictions.

Total Closing Cannot Be Permanently Achieved.

Dr. Newton Expresses Pronounced Opinions
Upon an Important Topic.

New York, Oct. 14.—Shall saloons remain open on Sundays? Rev. Dr. Heber Newton thinks they should, and expressed himself to that effect in a sermon at All Souls' church yesterday entitled "The Sunday Saloon." He reviewed the work of the present commissioners, and said: "Mr. Roosevelt has set the standard to which we must hold all his successors. But the question as to what the law should be is wholly another matter. The first step is that the whole question should be submitted to the people of the city to determine. We can never educate a true public sense on this question, except as responsibility is laid upon us."

"Local option means far more than the right of a city to settle its own excise system; it means that civic freedom with which comes the education of a civic conscience."

Existing Laws Good Enough.

"The Christian Endeavor council which has just closed Brooklyn called for the permanency of the existing laws. Christian churches in council assembled echo this demand, and refuse to consider the question of modifying these laws. It seems to me that such a course is a serious mistake."

DR. HEBER NEWTON.

"Such a total closing of saloons through a whole Sunday has never been permanently achieved in any large city of western Christendom. London is the most stringent in its Sabbath observance of any city in Europe, but in London the saloons are open during the afternoon and evening."

"Heretofore, in all attempts to regulate the liquor traffic on Sunday, our community, in common with other communities, has been content with a partial enforcement of Sunday closing. Closing the saloons during the morning, they have been left open under proper restrictions during the latter portion of the day. This has been the course practically pursued in New York through all the time which I can recall, whatever may have been the laws upon the statute books. This presents a possibility of enforcement permanently, and to that extent lessens the evil of intemperance and pays due regard to Sunday."

"All sane attempts to regulate the liquor traffic on Sunday in great towns and cities seek to distinguish between the drinks which are offered, prohibiting the sale of ardent spirits and allowing the sale of beers and light wines. The present laws in New York make no such distinction. Such a total suppression through the whole Sunday is now achieved, even so."

Mr. Roosevelt's Own Testimony.

He claims that 90 percent of the saloons are closed. Those who live in regions principally occupied by saloons would allow a much less percentage than this.

"The law cannot be enforced beyond the point where the conscience and the will of a community are behind it. Law is the driving wheel of reform, it is the rather wheel. It holds the gains made by the public sense of the community."

"The temperance aspect of the question is, in reality, nothing less than the old prohibition doctrine applied to one day out of seven. Prohibit' on one day out of seven will share the market prohibition through the seven days."

"The law will break down in the future as it has broken down in the past. Private clubs will take the place of the saloons. The side doors will be opened and the front door will be closed. All laws of this kind are doomed. The law will obtain. The results will be morally worse than from the attempts to enforce a practical resistance of the Sunday traffic."

Both Were Good Shots.

GLOUCESTER, O., Oct. 14.—David C. Cooke, city marshal, was attacked on the street last night by ex-Night Marshal Donnelly, who, from an old grudge, began firing at Cooke. The shots were fired, and both fell dead 10 feet apart. Cooke with four bullets in his breast, and Donnelly with a bullet through his heart.

On Good Terms.

BERLIN, Oct. 14.—Emperor William yesterday received Prince Lobanoff, the Russian minister of foreign affairs, and Chancellor von Hohenlohe at Hohenstock. This visit must be regarded as a return visit of Chancellor von Hohenlohe to the czar and as a sign of improved relations.

Armenian Murders.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 14.—A report has reached the patriarchate that two Armenians were murdered on leaving the Koumkapou church during the evacuation of the city by the Armenian refugees.

HABANA, Oct. 14.—Over 100 persons were drowned in the flood which followed the recent hurricane in the Vueta Abajo district.

Ten Cars Wrecked.

WATERBURY, Conn., Oct. 14.—A serious wreck of a freight train occurred on the New England railroad, south of Porter street crossing, shortly after 7 p. m. Ten loaded freight cars were demolished, three men were injured, and a valuable truck horse was killed.

Broke His Neck.

WOONSOCKET, R. I., Oct. 14.—John Watts, aged 65 years, a resident of Bellingham, Mass., was walking over a railroad bridge in that town when he lost his balance and fell 30 feet into the Charles river. He struck a post in his fall and broke his neck.

TWO LIVE TOPICS

Disposed of in a Succinct Manner by Don M. Dickinson.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—Don M. Dickinson is in Washington on business. His name has been spoken of recently as the one referred to by Sackville-West in his pamphlet as the member of Mr. Cleveland's cabinet responsible for the minister's summary dismissal. Mr. Dickinson, being asked as to the facts of the case, said: "As the incident occurred when I was a member of the cabinet, I do not feel at liberty to discuss it. But as to Sir Lionel Sackville-West, I have no hesitation in saying that he is now and always has been an informal ass."

DON DICKINSON.

Mr. Dickinson was asked for his views on Cuba, as it has been stated that he represented an advanced position on these questions among the leaders of his party. He said he did not care to go into the subject at length. The developments at no distant day would speak more eloquently than words. He referred to the fact that Daniel Webster had recognized the independence of Greece many years before that country had actually secured complete independence, and in those days even Webster had been accused of "jingoism."

Against Rebate System.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—Representatives of life insurance companies met in the Fifth Avenue hotel on the call of Commissioner George S. Merrill of the Massachusetts insurance department, the object being to devise means for stopping rebates on life insurance premiums. Commissioner Merrill holds that the rebate system of premiums in a mutual company is unjust to the membership and harmful in its effects upon the interest of business universally. He suggested that a reward be offered to any person through whose instrumentality the conviction of a rebater is brought about.

Lynching Likely to Follow.

GREENWOOD, S. C., Oct. 14.—J. J. Moseley, a liquor constable, early yesterday morning seized some liquor coming in on a train. He was accompanied by a trial justice constable and had a warrant. While storing the whisky in the depot a negro seized a jug and ran. Moseley fired two shots at him, but then was shot dead from behind. Four negroes have been arrested. There are threats of lynching, and the local militia has been ordered to hold itself in readiness to respond to the orders of the mayor.

Insurgents' Prize.

HABANA, Oct. 14.—The insurgents at Aserradero bay, near Santiago de Cuba, captured a pilot boat, commanded by a lieutenant in the Spanish navy and having marines on board, which was doing cruiser duty along the coast. The insurgents carried away the armament of the cruiser, consisting of a grating gun and all the ammunition, stores, etc., which they found on board, together with the weapons of the Spanish marines.

Wilson's Strategy.

POCAATELO, Ida., Oct. 14.—Lieutenant J. K. Miller of the Eighth infantry, stationed about two miles from Jackson's Hole, states that J. C. Wilson, who brought the false report of the killing of Captain Smith and companions in Jackson's Hole, is a deserter from the Seventh cavalry in camp in the Teton Pass, and that Wilson made these statements in order to obtain a relay of horses and to facilitate his escape.

Threat of the Pope.

ROME, Oct. 14.—There is a strong probability that the protest of the pope against the proposed visit of King Carlos of Portugal to King Humbert, and the threat of his holiness to refuse to receive King Carlos should he come to Rome, will be effective to prevent the coming to this city of the Portuguese king.

Old Composer Gone.
